Thank you all for your input on the SEPAC Survey, we will continue to monitor results but have already been sharing your feedback with Public Schools of Brookline. We've had 96 responses so far. Click here or on the image to see the results.

The feedback from many of you (in comments and open ended questions) was that there is so much information coming at you, it's overwhelming. It seems that many of us are looking for clear, simple communications specific to our children's profiles/needs. That feedback and the data you see here has been shared with Brookline Special Education administration.

As time permits, we'll be looking at the data more to see if we can glean further insights (e.g. differences in grade level needs). We'll keep you posted, but didn't want to delay sharing overall results.

Email info@brooklinesepac.org with any questions.
April's SEPAC Meeting has been cancelled - rather than try to do a virtual replacement, we are working on setting up virtual social gatherings to support each other less formally.

We are looking into OML compliant options for May and June and considering our options in these unprecedented times. Stay Tuned

Our first social will be Friday, March 26th at 8:30pm (that's tomorrow night!)

Join us for beverages and conversation if you'd like to chat and see "live" people (BYOB). Not a formal "meeting" so please don't file OML violation for lack of notice.

Brookline SEPAC remains dedicated to helping families and sharing official information as it becomes available. These are difficult times and they are going to get worse before they get better. Our goal is to pull the community together and help those who need it most. Please let us know if you need anything - you can always contact Faith and Linda by emailing info@brooklinesepac.org

Below are links to google docs that we are updating as often as we can. We've also added a link to the Google Drive as we are getting PDFs with great info and can't keep up with copying and pasting into the documents. If you need anything and it isn't there, just let us know.
